"Clover News Blast"
Lake County 4-H
March 17, 2016

Graduating Seniors

Lake County 4-H Scholarship applications are available online or at the Extension Office.

Due April 4.

www.lakemt.gov/extensionOffice/

State 4-H Foundation Scholarship Applications are due in Bozeman April 1.

Available at www.montana4h.org

TIP:

Use your recordbooks to 'fill in the blanks' for scholarship applications! Full of detailed info!

BIG CHANGE!

County Shooting Sports Competition for Archery and Air Rifle – April 30 10 am to finish

Awards Ceremony 6 pm –

Lake County Fairgrounds, Ronan

This is the county shoot.

Those of you weighing in animals please plan accordingly. We will set squadding times the first part of April.

Note: To be eligible to compete at the County Competition, you must have attended 6 Tuesday night practices at the Fairgrounds by the competition date. If you have not been attending since practices started in November, you need to make 6 practices between now and April 30. Shotgun, pistol and muzzle-loading county contests may be held at Fair time dependent upon enrollment.

Here's some highlights since last week!

St Patrick's Parade

TODAY!! March 17th—5PM

Meet behind St Luke's to hope on the float.

- 4-H Shooting Sports members – Remember you must attend 6 Tuesday evening practices in the Horticulture Barn to be eligible to compete at the Lake County 4-H competition on Saturday, April 30th! Entry forms and information to set squadding times will be emailed the 1st part of April.

Coming Up:

Quality Assurance—March 29th @ 5PM

Mandatory for 1st year market projects and 1st year Senior 4-Hers

Anyone who wants to volunteer, contact Jack @ the Extension office.

State Rec Lab—April 8-10

Registration due March 25, Info @ Extension office

April Junior Chefs

April 14, 6:00 pm, Extension Office kitchen

Fair Concession Shift Sign Up— April 19th

Fairgrounds Clean Up Day—April 23rd

10A-2P, Lunch Provided, bring yard tools

Quote of the week:

Creativity is intelligence having fun.—Albert Einstein